Dillingham, Shubert, Tyler and Savage Return From Europe With New Plays.

STARS WILL COME HERE.

Latest Musical as Well as Dramatic Productions Are Arranged For.

A glimpse of New York's coming heatrical offerings was obtained with he arrival of Charles Dillingham and J. Shubert on the Vaterland, and Scorge Tyler and Henry W. Savage n the kronpring Wilhelm. Shubert ripts, contracts for a number of new plays and musical productions and contracts with a half dozen or more foreign stars.

Dillingham outlined his plans, including the production Oct. 1 of an utumn revue entitled "Watch Your step," all of the music of which is by Irving Berlin. The company will in-clude Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle, Elizabeth Murray, T. Roy Barnes and thers, a newcomer being Rene Grats. popular English singer. He has a musical vehicle for Montgomery and Stone to be put on at the Globe

He also will produce a new play he secured from Edward Sheldon in London, "The Lonely Heart," starring Jack Barrymore. His ...xt play will "Romance," in which Doris Keane vill appear until the spring, when she will have a new play. Mr. Dilling-ham said he arranged in Paris for main said he arrange in French the leading role in "The Girl on the leading role in "The Girl on the will until next year, when she will sturn to America to appear in a new

Mr. Tyler talked of two of the en stare who will come under the management of Liebler & Co. They are Phyllis Nellson-Tarry, who will be seen in New York in Novemter in "Twelfth Night" and "Romeo and Juliet," and Nazimova, who will appear in a new play by B. McDonald Hactings.
